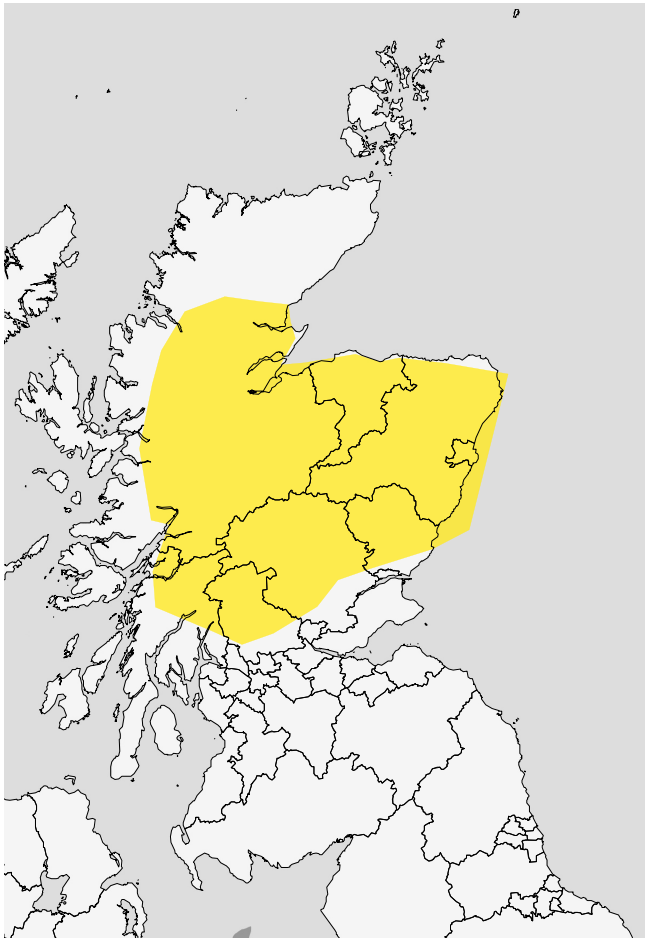
Yellow warning
Ice

Between
14:00 Wed 22 Dec 2021 and
10:00 Thu 23 Dec 2021



Freezing rain and icy patches may lead to travel disruption this morning.

What to expect

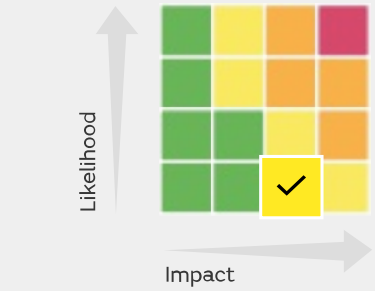
- A higher than normal chance of injuries from slips and falls on icy surfaces, or accidents on roads and pavements
- There is a small chance that bus and train services may be delayed or cancelled, with some road closures and longer journey times
- A small chance that roads, pavements and cycle paths could become quite quickly impassable

Further details

The threat of icy patches, caused by freezing rain in some parts, continues through into this morning in some parts. There is also the possibility of some snow falling at times, mainly over the Highlands above 400-500 metres.

Reason for update

Warning updated to allow threat of icy patches to persist for longer and to extend warning eastwards.



Very low likelihood of medium impacts
